MAISON D'EXCEPTIONS SHOWCASE OF RARE ARTISANAL SKILLS & KNOW-HOWS RETURNS TO PREMIÈRE VISION PARIS FEBRUARY 7 - 9, 2023

Breaking a two-year absence, Maison d'Exceptions returns to Première Vision Paris this February 7, 8 and 9, in the heart of Hall 6 of the Parc des Expositions de Villepinte.

For its 10th edition, the space dedicated to rare and creative know-hows will present 23 handpicked ateliers - including 6 new ones - from 5 countries::

- 11 from France, 5 from Japan, which sees a return in force of its offer, 4 from India, 2 from Italy, and an artisan from the United Arab Emirates.

These highly skilled ateliers will be presenting exceptional techniques and rare craftsmanship, all more than ever focused on innovation as a means of offering unique and custom creations - including textiles, leathers and accessories - to luxury brand buyers and designers:

- Semi-automatic and artisanal weaving, leather braiding and caning, mother-of-pearl plating, finishing, feather and button work, non-violent silk production, fashion manufacturing by hand, artisanal embroidery, original dyes, recycling techniques and more.

Ever since its creation in 2011, at each February edition of Première Vision Paris, Maison d'Exceptions introduces visitors looking for creative exclusivities to a cutting-edge selection of workshops from around the world, all boasting a mastery of traditional artisanal techniques or outstanding innovative technologies. A space designed as a showcase for luxury houses, accessible by invitation only, where passionately committed artisans explore, experiment and innovate in their offer of unique products and know-how.
